By letter dated August 26, 1993, the Commission's Executive Director instructed Horry to publish a prepared Notice of Filing, one time, in newspapers of general circulation in the affected areas. The Notice of Filing indicated the nature of Horry's filing and the manner in which interested parties could participate in the proceeding. Horry submitted a publisher's affidavit indicating it had complied with the Executive Director's instructions. The Commission did not receive any Petitions to Intervene.

After thorough review of the request, the Commission hereby approves Horry's request for extraordinary retirement of its central office equipment and its proposed revised depreciation rates as reflected in the attached Appendix. These amendments shall be effective on January 1, 1993.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
